MAKING THE BAND: Hey, Elton John! Now that you've announced plans to wed your longtime partner, David Furnish, have you given any thought to rings? Consider jeweler Udi Behr's Love & Pride bands for same-sex couples. The 18k gold rings with male or female symbols combine to form one piece. "It is an opportunity to do something right with a form of art I know," says Behr, whose other designs have been worn by Britney Spears and Sharon Stone. . . .
